Rogers & Co.'s liquor store in Market street, was thrown from his horse yesterday morning at his home in Washington and in the fall he received the cap bone of his left shoulder was broken and his face bruised. He came to town and Dr. S. R. Harover attended to his injuries.

Mrs. Kate Hanley, formerly of this city, and widow of John Hanley, who years ago was a compositor on The Republican, but for the past twenty years a resident of Frankfort, has been appointed Matron of the Penitentiary by Governor Beckham. Mrs. Hanley has many relatives and friends in this city who will no doubt remember the kindly act by boosting the Governor in his Senatorial race in November.

THOMAS DYE.

Mr. Thomas Dye, one of the most respected citizens of the Sardis neighborhood, died yesterday at 12:30 at his home at that place.

Mr. Dye was stricken Friday last with paralysis.

Deceased was 73 years of age and was a brother of Mr. George W. Dye of Sardis, the two being about the oldest and best known citizens of that section of the county.

He is survived by his wife and two children—Mrs. William Bland of Bourbon county and Postmaster Harvey Dye of Sardis. Mr. J. D. Dye of West Second street is a nephew.

The funeral takes place at 1 o'clock today at Shannon Church, the Rev. Bird Hughes of Sardis conducting the services, the interment following in the Cemetery at Shannon.

Miss Katie P. Clark, formerly of this city, died in the hospital at Cincinnati yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, aged 40.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gailfoyle and Mr. Lawrence Clark left yesterday evening for Cincinnati and will return with the body on the 10:10 train this morning.

The remains will be taken direct from the Depot to the Washington Cemetery for interment.

The deceased leaves two sisters and three brothers—Mrs. Jenny Gailfoyle of Bridgestreet, Mrs. George Patillo of East Fourth street, and Messrs. Lawrence, James and William Clark.

NELLIE M. BLYTHE.

Nellie M., the bright and pretty three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl H. Blythe, died this morning at 1 o'clock at their home, 141 West Second street, of membranous croup, after an illness of six weeks.

The funeral will occur from the home at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with services by the Rev. Felix K. Struve, of the First M. E. Church, South.

MRS. SCOTT HOWELL.

A telegram was received by Dr. Alexander Hunter yesterday announcing the death of Mrs. Scott Howell at her home in Keokuk, Iowa, Monday evening at 6 o'clock.

Her demise was very sudden, though she had been confined to her home for some days.

She was a sufferer from rheumatism and it is supposed that the disease had reached her heart.

Mrs. Howell, it will be remembered, was on here a short time since at the obsequies of her son's wife, the daughter of Dr. Hunter.

She was then the picture of health and vigor, a very handsome, well-preserved woman, of striking and distinguished appearance.

Mrs. Howell was aged sixty-seven years, and was Miss Lucy Taylor of the Virginia family, and grand-daughter, on her mother's side, of General and President William Henry Harrison.

Her son, Mr. Cleve Harrison Howell, had but recently left there on his return to his duties in Florida as Civil Engineer, where he was apprised of the sudden summons to his mother.

Owing to a relapse of her son, who has been ill, Mrs. W. R. Ivey did not arrive here last evening as expected.

THIS ONE'S TRUE!

And the Doorknob Can Be Seen in Proof of It

This is the Snake.

Ordinarily snake stories are of an elastic character and the authors of many are too often given to magnifying and stretching a minor incident into a wonderful and unseemly event. The custom has become so general that little credence is given when anything is said connecting the oviparous kind with something remarkable.

However, what THE LEDGER has to say is vouched for by a gentleman of culture and veracity, and may be unhesitatingly accepted as truth.

Mr. Andy Clark, Engineer at the Sphar Brick Company plant, just East of the confines of the city, is a chicken fancier, and puts in his old time when not at the yard in raising chickens and gathering hen fruit. Usually, in gathering the hen product, one is always left as a nest-egg. Here of late Andy's henhouse has been visited at night and the nest robbed of its contents,—not a single one left for the old hen to begin business on the following day. He became alarmed, fearing that she would quit work. He finally hit on a plan he thought would mend matters. Procuring a round porcelain doorknob he fixed it permanently in the nest by driving the four inch iron shank into the ground.

The next morning on visiting the henhouse he was greatly surprised to find that the decoy egg had also disappeared. In looking about the chicken house he discovered the presence of a large blacksnake in the farther corner. Securing a stout club he made battle with the reptile and succeeded in dispatching it. His snake-ship measured over six feet in length, and its stomach being opened the porcelain doorknob, together with a number of other hard substances, was found. How it managed to loosen and swallow the doorknob is what bothers Andy.

Mr. David F. Keith, half-brother of Mrs. Charles Cook of Helena, died yesterday at his home in Versailles.

Mr. W. L. Holton of Tuckahoe is certainly entitled to the blue ribbon as a grower of sweet potatoes. As a sample of his production two of them weighed 13½ pounds. Who can beat it?

Bear Payne and Pete Whaley, colored, were tried in Judge Newell's Court yesterday on a petit larceny charge, found guilty and sent to jail for thirty days. Pete and Bear will miss the glories of participating in the November election, but they will get three square meals a day, all the same.

DARBY DACEY DEAD

Maysville Man Succumbs to Burns Received in Cincinnati Fire

THE LEDGER some days ago told how Thomas "Darby" Dacey, a former well known character of this city, was so terribly burned in a Cincinnati fire.

Dacey had been asleep in the building and crawled through the flames to an old shed a square away, where he collapsed and was not found until two days later, almost dead from lack of food, exposure and his wounds.

He was removed to the City Hospital, where he died yesterday, aged 51.

His mother was many years ago janitress of the Bank of Pearce, Wallingford & Co. of this city.

THE general public may not know that a man was elected to office by fraudulent ballots; but the man who profited by them will know it,—and the knowledge will be read in his countenance.

WITH coveys of quail hovering about the business buildings in Main street, Lexington has fully established her claim to being the "Center of the Bluegrass"—right out in the middle of the field, in fact.

WITH coveys of quail swarming the streets of Lexington, and a wolf being killed in the streets in Paducah, what are Kentucky's country towns coming to, anyway? Move over to Maysville, gentlemen, where the streets are full of vehicles, shoppers, pedestrians—and brick.

THAT municipal ownership has never been a paying investment is the conclusion contained in a report submitted to the American Street and Interurban Railway Association by the Committee on Municipal Ownership. It embodied reports on 154 electric railways in forty states and Canada. The Association does not wish this to be taken as indicating any definite stand by it; it is merely a report of facts gathered on the subject.

A folding car step, intended to aid invalids, decrepit or aged persons in climbing on or off the platform, is the result of a kind-hearted woman's thought.

There were 61,900 births in Ohio in the year ending June 30th, 1906. In the same period there were 31,801 deaths and 44,417 marriages, as compared with 41,212 the year next preceding.

The fourth pair of twins were born a few days ago to Mr. and Mrs. Murray T. Snyder of Marion, Ohio. They now have nine children, although the husband is only 40 years of age and his wife is 30.

In 1905 there were 26 fatalities from football in the United States and only three from prize fighting.

Pending the investigation of the alleged shortage of $61,200 at the St. Louis Subtreasury, Marshall B. Ferguson, a paying teller, and D. P. Byer, Jr., a receiving teller, were suspended.

Colonel Harry S. New of Indianapolis may succeed G. B. Cortelyou, when the latter gives up the office of Postmaster General to accept the Treasury portfolio. It is said the President is considering New. He once refused to accept the place of First Assistant Postmaster General.

MORE than 11,000 people were imprisoned in England last year for debt. Most were victims of the installment plan. How lucky for at least 40,000,000 Americans that the imprisonment-for-debt law has been abolished in this country.

If half of what is said by one party of the other party in Cincinnati is true, the other party ought to be in the Penitentiary; and if only an eighth of what is said in return by the other party is true,—why, then, the other party ought to be hanged.

SINCE the beginning of the Government the amount paid in pensions has been $3,459,860,311, of which $3,259,195,306 was paid on account of the Civil War. These figures indicate that even the indirect expenses of a war make it a costly luxury. And yet Uncle Sam is getting richer and richer every day, while his boys and girls are having the times of their lives.

WHO'LL TRY IT HERE?

At a recent convention of Ministers one of them told how he had paid off the mortgage on the Church to which he had been assigned. This Church was located in a small New England town, the population of which was unusually well to do, and where there was a keen social rivalry. The Sunday before Easter the Minister made this announcement:

"I am going to make a suggestion to the good sisters of the congregation. Next Sunday, in the vestibule, will be found a blackboard, and I think it would be a pretty idea if each sister would write thereon her name and the amount she will give as an Easter offering—the amount to correspond to the cost of her Easter hat."

"And was the plan a success?" some one inquired. "Well," he said, "I paid off a fairly good-sized mortgage and recaptured the Church."

If you neglect the aching back, Urinary troubles, diabetes, enurely follow. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache, Cure every kidney ill. Maysville citizens endorse them.

Mrs. Lizzie Bridges, wife of Elmer Bridges, of 206 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"In March, 1900, I gave a testimonial praising and recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and in it I told how I learned the great value of this remedy. I had been troubled with a bad back and weak kidneys from girlhood, and in my efforts to find a cure I tried every medicine I could find, but without benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills procured at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore. They proved just the remedy I needed, went right to the cause of the trouble and as a result brought relief that led me to testify in their favor. I have never been without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house since. Every Spring I take a box whether symptoms of kidney trouble are apparent or not, and in this way keep the kidneys in good condition and guard against attacks of my old trouble."
